

Read the online version

July 2023

PES Network Newsletter

European Network of Public Employment Services

Network Highlights

PES Network Elects New Chair and Vice-Chair

Congratulations to Ms Caroline Mancel, Deputy Director General of the Brussels based Public Employment Service Actiris, on becoming the new Chair as of 1 July 2023, and Ms Inga Balnanosiené, Director of Employment Services in Lithuania, on being elected as the First Vice Chair starting from 1 January 2024. Read more.

New PES Opinion Paper Contributes to the European Year of Skills Debate

Amid the green and digital transitions, workers must have the right skills to adapt to a changing labour market. In the context of the European Year of Skills 2023, the European Network of Public Employment Services (PES Network) just released an opinion paper, promoting successful approaches, highlighting challenges and offering recommendations to address each of the European Year of Skills' objectives. Read more.

PES Network adopts 7 recommendations to guide employment services assisting refugees and persons displaced from Ukraine

During its meeting held in Stockholm, the PES Network Board adopted common guidelines for PES supporting the labour market integration of displaced people and refugees. The considerations highlight areas of particular importance for the labour market integration of refugees and displaced people related to language, skills and qualifications, partners and institutions, and employers. Read more.

More News from the PES Network

In the latest PESPod episode, we hear from two PES Network experts – Ms Kristina Fleischer and Mr Bernd Becking – about how and why the PES Network's peer benchlearning assessments represent such a positive European initiative and the benefits they are providing to PES across Europe. Listen now or learn more.

Bridging the green and digital skills gap in Europe: new PES Network videos

'Upskill' programme in Portugal

Green Skills Training in Ireland

'Relocate' project in Sweden

European Labour Market Barometer June 2023

The labour market outlook for the next three months is ...

The European Labour Market Barometer fell for the second time in a row, currently at 101.0 points with a decline of 0.6 points since May. Unemployment shows a slight increase, while employment growth is expected to continue at a slower pace. Read more.

How can PES support the greening of the labour market?

What is the future of professional skills recognition and assessment?

How can labour market interventions help people into work?

see more

Latest Network Publications

New forms of PES service delivery - [Thematic Paper]

A contribution to the European Year of Skills - [Opinion Paper]

New forms of skills assessment and validation – impact on PES ser- vices and counselling - [Thematic Paper]

Labour market integration of displaced people and refugees - Update of Key Considerations - [Report]

PES support to greening of the labour market - [Thematic Paper]

New forms of active labour market policy programmes - [Study]

see more

Upcoming Network Events

Working Group on Evidence-based service design	3 October 2023
Working Group on Taxonomies	5 October 2023
Meeting of the Advisers for European PES Affairs	12-13 October 2023
Benchlearning Workshop of Assessors	24 October 2023
Benchlearning Training of Assessors	25 October 2023
Thematic Review Workshop on Adapting
PES digital tools for better inclusion	7-8 November 2023
PES Board Meeting, Spanish Presidency	14-15 December 2023

see more

Commission proposal on developing social economy framework conditions

EU Commissioners discuss the progress of the integration of people fleeing Russia's invasion of Ukraine

Current trends on the European labour market and ELA activities to help better prepare for the changes expected

Pact for Skills has already helped 2 million people that benefit from up-and-reskilling activities

Commission adopts Spring Package

Commission report finds labour and skills shortages persist and looks at possible ways to tackle them

see more

Publisher: European Commission, DG Employment, Social Affairs & Inclusion. | Subscribe, if this email was forwarded to you. | You can unsubscribe on your profile page. | Contact

The European Commission is committed to personal data protection. Any personal data is processed in line with the Regulation (EU) 2018/1725. Please read the privacy statement